

Standards for the 21st Century Learner

The Program

Please join K-12 teacher-librarians in professional development designed to focus upon the new AASL Standards and their integration with:

- *Content-area learning standards
- *Grade-level benchmarks
- *Assessment strategies
- *Performance indicators
- *Student inquiry

- *Explicit focus on Web 2.0 tools will also be included in this day of learning to support the whole child through the development of their information literacy.

Various AASL publications will be provided at no charge to registrants.

The Presenter

Pam Berger, an educational technology and library consultant, author, editor, trainer, and adjunct professor in the School of Information Studies at Syracuse U., will guide attendees through this one-day workshop to provide an opportunity to increase your understanding about the new standards as well as the related strands, indicators, and benchmarks. Participants will leave with a knowledge of how to apply these framework pieces in lesson planning and teaching.

- *Program is offered at no charge.
- *Payment for optional lunch is accepted at registration.
- *Maximum enrollment is 75.

Deadline to register: December 4, 2009.

Wednesday, December 9, 2009; 8:30 a.m. (registration & coffee/tea provided) 9 – 3 p.m.
WELLS COLLEGE, MacMillan Building, Floor #2, 170 Main Street, Aurora, New York 13026

Register at MyLearningPlan (MLP): www.tstboces.org (See MLP tab in upper left corner of web page)

Program provided by Cayuga Onondaga BOCES & TST BOCES School Library Systems
Questions? Contact Jane O'Brien, jobrien@tstboces.org, 607.257.1555 x306

Program is provided at no charge; lunch available for $6.50 per person or on your own.